

GETTING AWAY TOGETHER

Think you and your group might deserve a luxury vacation getaway?

Send your submissions to:
casting@pineridgetv.com

Tell us why you deserve a 4-day vacation at a luxury vacation rental home!

A nationally-known production company is looking for a family or group reunion willing to share their story for a national television series while on vacation in a wonderful resort location. The chosen group will be featured on a 4-day vacation at a luxury vacation rental home. Film crews will document your experience playing, dining, and doing all kinds of activities, while getting to know your personal background “story,” and why you like to get away together. The brand new series for PBS member stations across the U.S. is the first to celebrate all kinds of groups “getting away together.”

If you think your family or group deserves this vacation, tell us why! Send your story with photos ASAP to be considered for Season One of the series.

Groups must be available for filming on the dates when vacation rental home is open and must be able to provide their own transportation to-and-from the vacation destination. Once there, all accommodations, dining and activities will be provided by the producers. The more fun your group “story” is, the better your chances of being selected.

GETTING AWAY TOGETHER is a family-friendly reality/travel series from the Emmy award-winning producers of Great Hotels, Passport to Europe, and Great Vacation Homes: PineRidge Film and Television.

